When reading texts of increasing complexity,* students achieving Approaches Grade Level Performance can  • Determine the meaning of words using context and reference materials
Explain the elements of literary texts by recognizing themes and plot development and explain the characteristics of