

The mathematical process skills describe ways in which students are expected to engage in the content. They are not assessed in isolation but are incorporated into questions that assess grade 8 content. The process skills focus on applying mathematics to solve problems, analyze mathematical relationships, and communicate mathematical ideas.

Describe relationships between sets of real numbers

Use multiple representations of proportional and non-proportional linear relationships

Model one-variable inequalities with variables on both sides of the inequality sign